Benediction

DEAR GOD,
Please look after my mother
just as she looks after her family, Bless her and give her all the HAPPINESS
she hopes for us to have,
and let her feel protected
just as I feel protected by the angel I call MOM.

Obituary

Roseline Nance-Caldwell better known as "Roz" passed away on Thursday, December 2, 2021 at Capital Health Systems-Fuld. Roz was born to the late Walter Lee Sr. and Rosetta Phyllis Nance on December 21, 1956. Roz graduated from Trenton Central High School and attended Mercer County Vocational School where she acquired her License Practical Nurse (LPN) credential. She was known for being a wonderful daughter, a resilient big sister, an awesome mother and grandmother, and an outstanding aunt and Godmother.

Roseline was the oldest daughter of ten. She was more than a big sister - she was a role model, a , and so much more. Prior to her becoming a young mother, she was offered a scholarship to Anderson College for her exceptional academic performance in high school. Roz met the love of her life - late husband, Donald Terry Caldwell in the 70s. In 1977, Roz and Donnie had their beautiful daughter, Tennille "Bunky." Shortly after, they were married. Roseline faced numerous obstacles as a young mother but this didn't stop her pursuit of a better life for her and her new family. While tackling motherhood, Roseline pursued her LPN. Despite a demanding schedule she always made time for her loved ones. Later in life, Roz and Donnie had another baby girl, Mahogany "Tootsie" in 1995. This was followed by her only grandson, Kashmir. As the family grew, so did her love and dedication for each of them. Roseline was more than a role model she led by example and expected her love ones to do the same. She raised the bar for her siblings by becoming one of the first professionals in the family.

Roz was employed with State of New Jersey and after 25 years of service she retired. She worked the grueling overnight shift for years so that she can spend time with her love ones during the day. Her straightforwardness and compassion to help others speak volumes to her character and her commitment to help others. She would provide assistance to almost anyone in need of her support but, be clear she was direct and honest in her approach.

She is predeceased by her husband Donald T. Caldwell of Welch, West Virginia, parents Walter and Rosetta Nance of Trenton, NJ, maternal grandparents Lucy Holmes-Bowman & Louis Bethea Bowman of Hightstown, NJ, fraternal grandparents Beatrice & Andrew Nance of Charlotte, NC, mother-in-law Lillian Agnes Caldwell of Welch, West Virginia siblings; Wayne, Walter and Renetta of Trenton, NJ and nephew Dennis Nance. Brother-in-law; Elwood William Caldwell. Her late best friend; Charmayne Francis. She is survived by her children; Tennille and Mahogany. Grandson; Kashmir. Her siblings; Wyman, Willard, Rosetta, William, Wally, Zeldrick, and RaShanda, Sister-in-law; Dwanna Caldwell & brother in law; Huell James Caldwell. Goddaughter: Shannon Roberson. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and very special friends.

She will be forever known for her sense of humor, great advice and sharp tongue. She is known for saying give me my flowers when I can smell them, and you'll never see a U-Haul following a hearse.

Mom, thank you for giving me life and making it special.
