Obituary

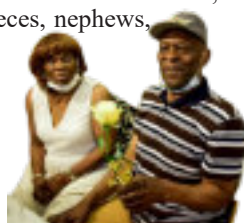

Willie Miller, born August 7, 1940 in Colquitt, GA is the son of Dennis Miller Jr. and Jeannie Lee "Gardner" Miller. Willie was raised in Georgia Baker County. He had seven siblings. He was affectionately known as "Willie" or "Snoop" by his family and friends. As a child, Willie worked on his parent's farm. As he got older he then met the love of his life, Nellie Mae "Grant" Miller and they eloped in Georgia July 8, 1960. They later relocated that same year to Jersey City, NJ. Two years later they gave birth to their first child Joann. While the family grew bigger, Willie continued his education, graduating from Martin Luther King Jr. Night School where he obtained his high school diploma. Before retiring Willie worked as a Chemist for many years at De Mill Chemical Company and several other side jobs. After years of hard work Willie and Nelly purchased their first home in the early 1970s. Willie overall had five children; Three who are living (Rosie Miller, Geneva Crawford, and William Miller); Two deceased children (Joann Miller and Dulenza "Lynn" Yates)

Willie was a great son, father, uncle, grandfather, great grandfather and true friend. He enjoyed eating, fishing, watching car races, cowboy television shows, traveling south to visit relatives, taking his children and grandchildren to Disney World and spending time with his love ones. A man wearing a purple baseball cap with a green logo, a white t-shirt, and blue overalls is standing on a rocky riverbank, fishing with a rod and reel. The background shows a calm river, a white bridge, and some houses in the distance under a hazy sky.

Gone Fishin'
I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.
Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.
We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.
To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'
