

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

23rd Psalm

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Ms. Chearlynn “Sherry” Dinkins was born in Newark, NJ on August 1, 1964 to Margaret “Kay” Dinkins and Marion Cleckly. She received her grade school education in the Newark Public School system and was a proud graduate of Weequahic High School’s class of 1981. She later attended Cazenovia College in Cazenovia, New York where she majored in journalism and minored in criminal psychology.

Shortly after college, she began working as a probation officer for the New Jersey State Department of Corrections. Sherry’s high energy and social personality led her to be successful in her entrepreneurial ventures as the “Hot Dog Lady”. Sherry had two locations: her main location, Green Acres Park and her second location, on Bergen Street. No matter the location, you were sure to have a pleasant and enriching conversation while she prepared your meal.

Sherry was a very passionate, feisty and giving individual, who would spend some days volunteering to package meals for the less fortunate. She loved reading her bible, dancing, and watching the ID channel. Her absolute favorite thing to do was watch Judge Judy and America’s Most Wanted while relaxing in bed with a turkey sandwich, and talking on the phone with her baby sister, Nina. She also enjoyed proudly bragging about her son and daughter-in-law’s accomplishments while hanging out with her girlfriends Val, Vicky and Kim. Most of all, at any given time, you could find her gushing over her handsome grandson, while showing his picture to anyone within a five-mile radius. Sherry never met a stranger.

Sherry joined the Trinity UAME Church in Newark, NJ. She loved being a part of the choir and helped create the first woman’s group alongside her cousin, Fatima Dinkins. After a short illness, she entered eternal rest at the age of 57 on Monday, November 29, 2021.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Margaret “Kay” Dinkins and Marion Cleckly. Today she leaves behind her loving son, Ibn Dinkins and his wife Dr. Tierra Dinkins; two sisters, Shaneen Dinkins and Tami Cleckly; brother, Keith (Denese) Dinkins; grandson, Eks Sezyn Dinkins; uncle, David McDaniel; nieces, Kerina Dinkins and Shaniqua Bennett; nephew, Ty’Qiyy Glover; cousins, Fatima Dinkins, William (Samid) Jones Almina Dinkins, Micus Dinkins, Frank Dinkins, and Jerrell Dinkins; Sister-Friends, Kim Bennett, Valerie Baker, Michele Allen, Bernadine Smith, Angela “Fijir” Waiters, Vicky Smith, and Debora Barba.
