Obituary

On behalf of my family, I would like to begin by thanking everyone that came today and who have sent their condolences.

My name is Malia Wallace, I am Janette King's granddaughter. She was born on June 3rd, 1958 in Annotto Bay St. Mary Jamaica to Walter Brown and Elizabeth Maitland. She was one of 6 children. She is survived by her sons Dwight Wallace and David Smith, Daughter-in-law Judy Forbes-Wallace, 6 grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Before migrating to the US, she was a small business owner in Kingston, Jamaica. She migrated to the US in 1993 and resided in Brooklyn for most of her time here, then moved to the Bronx for the last 5 years before her final departure.

She worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant for 17 years then happily retired. She loved going to Trinity Faith Pentecostal Church of God and partaking in the Prayer Line and singing in the choir.

She was outgoing and always wanted to be the life of the party. Because of her friendly and outgoing personality, she was able to make friends easily and always had a story to tell.

During her last months, she was unable to communicate with words but music always seemed to brighten her spirit.

Grandma Janette, you will be missed, and will never be forgotten. Please watch over my cousins and I as we continue to grow.

Rest in Eternal Peace with our Lord and Savior.

To Say Goodbye

To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.
