Obituary

Sunrise on April 17, 1933, Remale opened her eyes in Roxboro, North Carolina to the late John and Odell Trotter. The Sunset for Remale was on Monday, November 29, 2021 at the Elizabeth Adam Crump Health and Rehabilitation Center, in Glen Allen, VA. The Lord said "It is time to come home".

Remale was educated in the Person County School System. She always spoke about the one mile walk to school and the one mile walk home from school but she enjoyed attending school. She loved everything school had to offer. Remale loved to dance, read, listen to music and she loved sports. She even played basketball in high school. After high school graduation Remale decided that there is a big world outside of Roxboro. In 1954 she moved to New York and settled in Nassau County. Her best friend introduced Remale to her husband, Louis Montgomery. They were married on June 9, 1957 at St. Paul A.M.E. Zion Church in Great Neck, New York. Their union brought forth two childre; Judith Elaine and Paul Steven.

Remale devoted her life to making a comfortable home for her husband and children. She became an avid reader. She enjoyed cooking, watching sports and talking to family and friends on the telephone and being available for her family.

Remale was preceded in death by her loving husband Louis Montgomery. She leaves behind to cherish her memory her two children; her daughter, Judith E. Montgomery-Stewart of Spotsylvania, VA, and son Paul S. Montgomery and daughter in law Zenobia of St. Albans, New York, two granddaughters, Lazhai D. Stewart of Charlotte, NC and Darlene O. Montgomery of St. Albans NY, one sister and brother in law, Anne and John Stanfield of Hyattsville, Maryland and other family members and friends.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

*I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge will award me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for His appearing.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.*

May God Bless and Keep You!
