Her mother Gloria later married late Douglas Atif Hughey who raised Tabitha like she was his own. She is the oldest of two children. Her family moved out of Irvington, NJ to East Orange at an early age where she went to at Clifford J. Scott High School and then Montclair State University where she received her CDA in Education. While residing in East Orange, Tabby had 2 kids of her own Asya and Shaquil. She also married Kerry Sherard Demings.

Although Tabby was well known for a variety of things. She began her career in education in Headstart with children even though she always jokingly said, "I hate kids." She eventually went into administration within the school system. She then got into heart work which included feeding the homeless, giving away coats and toys for tots. When she got into outreach ministry, it was a perfect fit for her naturally. She touched so many hearts while doing God's work. Within the connections of True Vine Ministries, The Love of Jesus Church and her home church Chosen Generation Ministries. Tabby also developed her love for design. She created Anointe Designs where she made colors come together like no one else could. She may have even been an unlicensed therapist for some the way she would just listen.

Tabby was loving, caring, strong, courageous and bold. She would give you the coat off her back and the word of God. She enjoyed peaceful gatherings, shut ins at the church, designing and creating especially interior. She touched the hearts of so many people especially through outreach.

Tabby loved her God first. She loved her children, her husband and her grandkids Atyia, Asiya, Ahmir, Aliya and Azaria. Everyone knew how much she loved her grandkids.

On December 6, 2021, God called Tabby home from this life to the eternal life and to the land of milk and honey. # When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
