Obituary

Ms. Yolanda Hayes was born in Brooklyn, NY to parents Leroy and Dora Hayes. From birth to a young adult, She grew up in various neighborhoods of Crown Heights. Yolanda Hayes attended the University of Islam from school starting age until the age of 9. From there, she attended Public School 191 where she graduated in to Sarah J. Hale middle school.

Upon graduating Sarah J. Hale, she attended Clara Barton High School where she graduated in 1984. She had a passion for music. During her young adult years, she utilized that passion through the art of Hip Hop where she was a rapper by the name of “Sunshine”. During her rap tenure, she appeared on multiple local radio stations and was known amongst her peers as the next big hit with her hot singles of “Out of Bounds”, “It’s my House” and “Believe in Me”. She was also a D-Jay practicing on her d-jaying skills in her and her family’s Eastern Parkway apartment building, apartment 2D.

Yolanda Hayes has been a dedicated employee at the U.S Probation Department for over 25 years, meeting several friends along the way with whom she remains friends with to this very day. She is also an activist, educating many people over the last 2 decades on the truth of Vaccinations and natural healing methods. She enjoyed spending her weekends with her beloved Granddaughter Ambriah Sommerville, taking her on various trips and spending time at home researching and relaxing. She enthusiastically took advantage of the working from home schedule during the pandemic where she found more time to spend with her family. She loved laughter, and making others laugh with her witty personality. If you had a joke for her, be prepared for an immediate comeback. She loved to travel via Amtrak to enjoy the scenery; she utilized the long travel time for reflection, and not to mention she had an apprehension of flying.

Yolanda Hayes is survived by her Twin Children, Shakirah Moore and Tarik Moore, her brothers, Xavier Hayes, Serhan Hayes, and Ameer Hayes, her grandchildren, Ambriah Sommerville, Tarik “Tj” Moore, Jayden Moore, Ameer Moore and Alias Moore. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and several cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents, Leroy Hayes and Dora Hayes and a brother, Kenneth Hayes.

Yolanda has touched many lives and contributed to humanity greatly. May her spirit be received with open arms and judged as light as a feather. ASE!

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Revelations 21:3,4

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

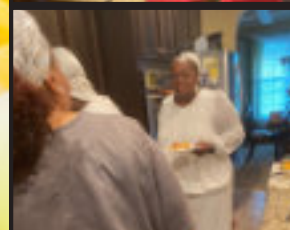

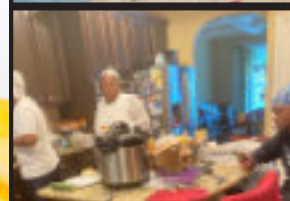

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
