Obituary

Sarah Moultrie was born May 24th, 1930, in New York, N.Y to the late Samuel and Albertha Hunter. She had 6 siblings: Serina, Ruth, William and Ruben; who proceeded her in death and to cherish her memory: Louise Martinez and Elijah Hunter. Sarah had six children, Earline, Laura, Terrence, Michael, Collette and Arden; Laura proceeded her in death.

In the 1950's, Sarah met and married Earl Williams who proceeded her in death. She later remarried James Moultrie; They enjoyed hanging out and doing things together. James also preceded her in death.

Sarah attended the New York City Public school system and she graduated from James Adams High School. After raising her children, she went to work in a factory and she also worked housekeeping. Sarah loved walking, anyone that knows her knew walking was like second nature to her, especially the grandchildren! She also loved dancing; even while she resided at the nursing home, she danced all the time. Her favorite actor was Whoopie Goldberg, you would always find her smiling whenever Whoopie appeared on TV. She enjoyed hosting her siblings and family members for family gatherings. She often gave pocketbooks as gifts to friends and family, and you would always find a dollar or two inside. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with all her grandchildren. Sarah truly enjoyed living life.

Sarah is survived by 5 children, 2 siblings, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.
