Obituary

Carol Diana Griffin was born on February 24, 1942 at St. John Episcopal Hospital in Brooklyn, New York to the proud late parents, Lola Bell Jefferson-Griffin and David Griffin. Carol's mom died when she was 4 years old.

Carol had a love for music, dance and helping people. She went to grade school in Brooklyn, NY and once she was old enough, she joined the P.A.L.'s Marching Band as a Majorette. Carol would twirl that baton and dance to the drums like she didn't have a bone in her body. Carol had a passion for learning and education. She attended grade school in Brooklyn, NY and applied for specialized high school Clara Barton for Nursing. She was so excited to start the journey of her dream career as a Nurse.

Carol's plan to become a nurse continued from Clara Barton to "Man Power" Program for Nursing at night. When she learned she was expecting her beautiful first born baby girl, Michelle Denise, she worked hard and earned her Nursing Diploma. Carol hit the books and began to prepare for the state nursing license exam and with determination and perseverance she succeeded to a nursing career.

Carol later became the mother of three additional children, Melvin, Raymond, and Robin. Carol's name charged from Carol Diana Griffin to Bullock when she married Raymond Bullock, her friend for life. If you never saw loyal in friendship, Carol and Raymond was it...Ride or Die.

Carol Diana, better known as the mother to Mary with an enormous heart, big beautiful smile, no nonsense demeanor and straight shooter. She was a person that people gravitated towards and became the favorite no matter where she went.

She was so talented and creative and it traveled through her DNA to her children, grandchildren and great grands. Music and dance is in their blood. Carol was the manager of the late grandson, Darnell's dance group, "Nuttin' but Flava". She was a bundle of joy giving ski trips and bus trips to Canada for Caribana in Toronto. She was amazing as she spearheaded the birth of the union at St. Mary's; getting petitions signed and sitting at the round table to negotiate contracts.

Carol was a fashionista and loved putting outfits together. Her coworkers, family, friends especially her children loved her style.

As a nurse she was exceptional, working in specialized units, Neonatal, ICU, CCU, Alcohol Detox, Psych E.R., Metrodome program to name a few.

She couldn't go to many places were folks didn't know her for making a lasting impression with their health, recovery or just showing that love.

As a mother she was precious, protecting, pampering, there was no conversation off limits at the same time sending a clear message of "Don't start none, won't be none". LOL and her facial expression and big brown beautiful eyes could speak loud with "Don't try it, get it together" and "Cut the mess".

Carol Diana, also known as Auntie, Aunt Carol, Mama Bullock, Nurse Bully, Ebony Princess, Pocahontas, Watusi with her long fingers using them for the grip of life. If she was holding you or anything with those long fingers, it was a wrap, (you or it was doomed).

Carol leaves to continue embracing life and her sweet spirit: her husband, Raymond Bullock; her children, Michelle Denise Griffin, Raymond Bullock, and Robin Bullock; grandchildren, Dameine, Kimora, Kourtney, Daichell, Dexter, Tyra, Darius, Rayvon, Rajuan and Kameron; great grandchildren, Divine, Ky'rah, Sanaari, Khayr and Naim; sister, Ruby (Jean) Britt; cousin/sister, Sandra Valentine; sisters-in-law, Arlene Bullock, Pauline Bullock, Yvette Butler, and Wanda Bullock; brother-in-law, Steven Bullock and Micheal Bullock; honorary son, Keith; honorary daughters, Kyra, Chandra, Chevelle, and Chanise; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

FINAL DISPOSITION:

Rosehill Crematory Linden, New Jersey A Heart of Gold

A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two shining eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best,
God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day He took you home.
To some you will be forgotten,
To others, just part of the past,
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.
