Obituary

Henry Matthew Hammond, Jr., son of the late Henry Matthew Hammond Sr. and Martha Love Hammond was born in Orange, NJ on August 8, 1965. He departed this life suddenly on December 11, 2021 at his home in Newark, NJ.

Henry was educated in the Newark public school system attending 13th Avenue School, and later attending Irvington Tech.

Henry worked at a variety of jobs including being a process server for DGR in Caldwell, NJ, delivery person for Lynns Auto in Bloomfield, was licensed as a bounty hunter and served as a NJ Notary Public helping with new home closings in that capacity.

The family will remember Mr. Hammond as a person with a difficult personality: Henry was Henry! But beneath the difficult exterior was a heart of gold. He loved children and was a lover of old school music.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Henry is survived by his companion of over 30 years, Niquette Haynes; sister, Ella Mae Hammond and her daughter, Loretta Williams; an aunt, Nancy Moore of Virginia; nephews, Anthony Hammond and Mark D. Hammond Jr.; step daughter, Sakinah Haynes; grandchildren, Shaniqua Haynes, Devaniece Haynes, Delania Jenkins, and a great grandson, Alexander Omole, along with a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
