Obituary

Ar-Raheem Washington was born on August 27th, 1976 to Kenneth E. Washington and the late Donna E. Robinson. Ar-Raheem was born in Newark, New Jersey where he resided until his untimely death.

Ar-Raheem was educated in the Newark Public Schools System. He later obtained his Black Seal license which certified him to service boiler pressure systems.

Ar-Raheem was a breath of fresh air, and he lit up any room he entered. He was the life of the party who kept everyone laughing, and he knew how to have a great time. Ar-Raheem was a protector, because he would go above and beyond to protect who and what he loved.

Ar-Raheem departed this life on Tuesday, December 7th, 2021. He was preceded in death by his mother, Donna E. Robinson; grandmother, Helen Williams; and his uncle, James "Jimmy" Williams.

Ar-Raheem leaves to cherish his memories: his daughter, Ahlaina Brown; his two grandsons, Josiah and Cairo Tisson; his brother, Larry "BEAN" Washington; his sister, Lateefah Washington; his father, Kenneth E. Washington; and his special friend, Joan Stevens. Ar-Raheem is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

A Letter from Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*
