Obituary

Clarence Bryant affectionately known as “Heavy” transitioned on December 8, 2021. He was born January 5, 1961, in Panola, Alabama. At an early age, he moved with his family to Yonkers, N.Y. where he attended and graduated from the Yonkers Public School system. It was there, that Heavy discovered his love of all thing’s basketball. He was a natural ballplayer and a true die-hard Knicks fan.

Along with basketball, Heavy was a natural with cultivating plants and landscaping. He could grow a garden out of one twig, earning a certificate as a horticulturist. Shortly after graduating High School, he enlisted into the United States Marine Corp serving his country for four years. For many years, Heavy worked as a security officer at Manhattanville College, White Plains, N.Y., and Con Edison.

In the early 80’s he would meet and marry the love of his life, Jean. Heavy and Jean would spend over forty years of their lives together, and to that union their son Sean was born.

Heavy loved his family, dearly. You were sure to have a good time at their home with laughter, music, and good food. No one was a stranger. Many of his childhood friends would be his lifelong friends to the end of his journey. He also shared a special bond with his niece, Monique Kouyate.

Heavy was an avid reader. He was knowledgeable of many topics and could debate with the best of them. He enjoyed cooking, grilling, and had a passion for fishing. He had an infectious smile, laughter, and a great sense of humor. Heavy loved living life, just as much as he loved a cold beer in his hand, and that is why he will be sorely missed by many.

Heavy leaves to mourn; his loving wife Jean; son Sean (Kassie); granddaughter Peyton, who he adored; two sisters, Faye and Geraldine (Reginald) both of Georgia; brother Clinton (Marva) of Bronx, NY; three sisters-in-law, Ilina Acosta, Yvonne Messiah and Sandra (Raymond) Arnold both of Belize; two aunts, Lena R. Santos of Yonkers, NY and Maddie Ray of White Plains, NY, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was predeceased by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jake and Lillie R. Leach and brother Earnest Bryant.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement. May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
