Obituary

Richard Monroe and Margaret Daniels met and eventually married, and out of that holy matrimonial union were born unto them five male children, Richard Jr., Ronald, Robert, Ramon and Reginald. Robert Monroe was the third sibling.

Robert attended public school here in New York City, where he graduated from Dewitt Clinton High School. He furthered his education by attending New York City College, where he studied Mathematics and Advanced Physics. Upon completion, he worked for Western Electric as a technician. To further himself, he went to work for Conrail, now called New Jersey Transit with his father.

Robert met Nadine Waston whom he married and fathered seven children. Robert's eldest and first child was born to Alberta Malloy, making Troy Malloy the first of eight children; to follow are, Xavier, Octavia, Isiah, Kashmishia, Kashimishea, Tyikey and Tyree.

Robert retired from New Jersey Transit and enjoyed his retirement years reading, playing chess, cards and other games of chance, and personal endeavors of relaxation.

We now celebrate his home coming. May the good Lord and peace be with him. We release him and his soul to you O God.

"I'm free, I'm free! Thank God Almighty, I'm free at last!"

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Miss Me But, Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
