Obituary

Mr. Timothy Staten, also known as Tim, Timmy, or his proudest title which was given to him by his grandson "PapaDoc", was born on September 23rd, 1963 in Duplin County, North Carolina, to his proud late parents, Sally Savage and George Staten. He was the oldest of two boys. His parents, younger brother Terry and him later migrated to New York City (Harlem) where they settled in Saint Nicholas Houses with his aunt, lovingly known as Mama Cille.

Tim attended George Washington High School and received college credits at Dominican College. Over the course of his career, he obtained numerous Computer IT certifications.

After trying different lines of work, such as the food industry and asset protection, he found his niche in Computer Networking. He worked over 20 years in the field before starting his own computer service company, TNT Computer & Systems. When asked what is the most rewarding job he ever had, he would proudly say being a father to his daughter Tasha for 33 years and watching his grandson Kannon grow daily for the past 5 years.

Tim was the life of any social gathering. Making friends came naturally as he was humorous with a contagious laugh and a pure heart. He could be heard saying some of his favorite one liners: "Nooo Goooood" or "What the badooses!" He enjoyed rooting for his favorite teams the New York Knicks and San Diego Chargers. He rocked a mean New York Yankee fitted which complimented his outfit of the day. He was once the neighborhood's Candyman, selling old and new school candies from the 4SheZ mobile. And let's not forget those red & blue nut crackers he made for old timers day and other special occasions.

Tim was an advocate for social justice and making Harlem safer for the next generation. He was a wonderful one of a kind son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend, and he will be missed immensely.

He is survived by: his daughter, Tashamea; step-daughter, Raven; nieces, Terreya and Tanshelle; nephews, Ike and Reggie; grandson, Kannon; godson, Little Curt; great nephew, DaVonta Jr.; great niece, Keilani; cousins, Morris and Jalil; and a host of extended cousins, and friends who then became his brothers and sisters.

Rest In Peace Tim (PapaDoc) forever in our hearts, until we meet again.

Serenity Prayer

GOD, grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace. Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will; That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.
