Obituary

Lillie Jackson was born in Metter, Georgia, on February 9, 1934 to Charlie & Shelley Brown (nee: Wilkerson).

Lillie graduated from the Candler County Public School system in Metter, Georgia; this is also where she met her husband Benjamin H. Jackson.

Lillie was a resident of Jersey City, NJ for more than sixty years, was a long time member of Tabernacle Temple C.O.G.I.C and was employed at a child care center. She loved children so much that when her role was completed at the center, she began to care for children out of her home; the children loved her. Actually, even in her spare time she enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, a host of other children, and friends.

Lillie welcomed everyone!

SHE WAS AN ABSOLUTE ANGEL HERE ON EARTH.

She touched so many lives, everyone knew they were welcomed, anyone could go to Lillie's house and make themselves at home. She lived for stuff like that, to help others love to live by the word of God. If you did anything wrong or thought of doing wrong you'd hear her voice telling you God wouldn't approve of that or reciting a scripture from the bible pertaining to the situation.

Mother Jackson (her title within her church family) loved to cook, read, write, and just gather with family and friends; her cakes and pies were sought after, her green velvet cake was always a "hit" around the holidays. She was just the sweetest lady, nothing but positive thoughts come to mind when thinking of her.

Mother/Momma/Nana: Lillie was so loving, warm, kind, generous..... She had a heart of gold, many would say she was one of a kind! She rarely said no, she never rejected a soul, she lived as a true woman of God.

Lillie was just that woman!!!

The go to: if you wanted to borrow money

The go to: if you needed someone to talk to

The go to: if you needed a babysitter

The go to: if you needed someone to pray for you

The go to: if you were hungry

The go to: if you needed a place to rest your head

We can go on and on..... Bottom Line

Lillie you lived a wonderful life and now you are home with your Lord.

You will be missed physically, but will forever remain in our hearts.

Lillie leaves to cherish her memories her daughter, Loretha Robinson, her sons Derrick Jackson, the late Raymond Jackson, Grandchildren Tarsha Noel, Rashida Robinson, the late Keyon Robinson, Fuquan "FuFu" Robinson, Javia Jackson, Derrick Jackson, Eric Scott, special grandson Terrill Wicks and 20 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by 3 sisters and 2 brothers, remaining siblings James Brown (wife: Ruby) and Mildred Holloway (Husband: The late Riley "Bill" Holloway), a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and children in the Lord.

Lillie Jackson is going up yonder to be with her Lord.

God Looked

God looked around his garden and he found an empty place. He then looked down upon his earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest, God's garden must be beautiful he always takes the best. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, so he closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine". It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for a part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
