Obituary

Beulah Nell Davis McAdoo was born April 20, 1941, in Brooklyn, Mississippi to the late Jack Roosevelt Davis and Annie Dell Breland Davis. She was the third child born to this union. After graduation in 1960 from Beaumont High School in Beaumont, MS, she continued her education at Piney Woods Junior College in Piney Woods, MS where she earned an Associate's of Arts Degree.

In 1962, she relocated to Long Island, New York and worked in domestic services. She attended Adelphi University and received a certification in Computer Data Systems. This training led to a career at King Kullen Corporate offices as a computer operation specialist, and after a few wonderful years there she moved to Northrop Grumman where she retired in 2000 after 27 years of service.

In 1964, Beulah met the love of her life Richard McAdoo. On December 30, 1967, they were married, and to this union two daughters were born.

Beulah received a spiritual rearing from her family and at St. John Baptist Church in Brooklyn, MS. As an adult she joined the congregation of Westbury Gospel Tabernacle in Westbury, NY, where she continued to grow in the knowledge of our Father, Jehovah, and his Son, Jesus. Beulah sang in the choir, and she felt honored to bless others with her cakes and pies for various occasions. Even though she faced many challenges, she would say, "we are praying for the sick and all those who need it. Thank God for Jesus!" Earlier this year, she resumed a regular nightly fellowship with her family, and more recently she and her husband started reciting the 23rd Psalms daily.

Over the past few years, the Creator kept saving our Beulah, even when the healthcare professionals and staff counted her out. God and his Son Jesus kept healing, saving, and giving her strength and we are grateful for the time that we had with her. But the Father our God had a different plan, and we will cherish the memories forever. To God Be the Glory!

Beulah transitioned on December 24, 2021. She was preceded in death by her parents Jack and Annie Davis, an unborn child, and her brother Roy Lee Davis. She leaves to cherish with fond memories her husband of 54 years Richard, daughters: Marci and Katrina, her grandson: Justin, brothers: James Davis and Jeff Davis, sisters: Doris (Arthur) Mason, Delois (Lessie) Gandy, sister-in-law: Marie Davis, brother-in-law: Charles (Evelyn) McAdoo, cousin/brother: Edward Breland, cousin/sister: Letteece Fairley and a multitude of caring and loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

To all family friends and neighbors: Thank you for your prayers and support throughout the years. We are eternally grateful.

Poem

"Until We Meet Again"

We think about you always
We talk about you still
You have never been forgotten
And you never will
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk and guide us through our lives
Until we meet again.
