Obituary

Ivy Magdalene Walcott of Jamaica Estates, Queens, New York passed to glory to be with her Lord in the early morning on Wednesday, 22 December 2021, of natural causes.

She was born in Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, April 16, 1923, to the late Samuel and Emiline Brown. Ivy traveled to England to study X-Ray Technology and returned to the United States becoming a licensed X-Ray Technologist. She retired from Mary Immaculate Hospital in Queens, New York after twenty years of service on January 1, 1966.

[dates of marriage] insert Charles C. Walcott, Sr. formerly of New Haven, Connecticut.

Before and after retirement, she was a Mary Kay Distributor and member of the Big Sister Senior Center and Hollis Senior Group. She loved to play dominoes and travel extensively with her best friend, Mrs. Athalee A. Levy. Ivy loved to dance to the music and drink her wine (Manischewitz).

She leaves behind to honor her life, a son/nephew Warrington (Valerie) Brown of Houston, Texas; a nephew Brandon (Samantha) Brown of Ohio; a niece Ingrid Brown and nephew Paul Brown of Florida; a loving and devoted daughter/ caretaker Doris Dobson. Many other nieces, nephews, cousins, grand and great grand nieces and nephews; and Pastor Charles Ancrum dear to her heart who brought church services and members to her home for many years from the Genesis Church. She also leaves her late husband Charles C. Walcott, Sr.'s grandchildren Renee Burnley and Maurice Burnley of Connecticut.

Predeceased by brothers Siebert and Neval Brown; a sister Cynthia Skyers of Jamaica, West Indies, and niece Kay Brown.

Crossing The Bar

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.*

May God Bless and Keep You!
