Obituary

On December 21, 2021, God sent His angels to escort Jasmine Hunt home.

Jasmine Frantina Hunt, affectionately known as “Muffin”, was born on August 26, 1986 to mother, Linda Hunt and father, Reynaldo Hunt. Jasmine had one sister, Shakeema Daniels whom preceded her in death.

Jasmine was educated in the New York City School System. She graduated from Boys & Girls High School and proceeded to Medgar Evers College and New Rochelle.

Jasmine was the life of the party. She loved socializing with all her family and friends. She loved and treated her great nephew Brysen as if he was her own kid.

Jasmine had a gift for dancing. She was known as the dance hall queen who loved partying and music. She loved doing special things with her mom by going shopping and getting their nails done. She was a daddy’s girl. Jasmine was a kind, happy and loving person. Most of all, she loved God. She attended St. Anthony Baptist Church where she was baptized.

Jasmine leaves to cherish in her memories: her mother, Linda Hunt; father, Sam Hunt; one sister, Aurora Royster; four nieces, Shatayvia, Keziah, KéMiyah, and KéMani; three nephews, Zayquan, Lil Derrick, and Karter; one great nephew, Brysen; one brother, Anthony Royster; aunts, Dorothy Blount, Alicia Gonsalvez, Delia Hunt, Jewel Hunt, and Florine Hunt; five uncles, Walter Jones, Mario Hunt, Ricardo Hunt, Leo Hunt, and Alvino Hunt; two godfathers, Carlos and Frank; godmother, Eve; godsister, Shanice; two best friends, Manika Jones and Blynn; and a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

A Message from Mom

The Day God Took You Home

A million times I've needed you
A million times I've cried,
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
No one else can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
Part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
