Obituary

Willie B. Glover, son of the late George Glover and Joanna Johnson Glover was born July 20, 1933 in Santee, South Carolina. He departed this life on December 25, 2021.

> Willie attended the public school system in Elloree, South Carolina at an early age. He joined Felderville AME Church.

At the age of 21 he met his wife Rosa Glover at a house party. They married in 1956 and relocated to Newark, New Jersey in 1964 with their children James Edward and Willie Glover, Jr. Willie was a devoted and loving husband.

In New Jersey Willie joined St. Luke AME Church where he was a member of the SC Club and served as Trustee and Usher.

One of Willie's favorite pass times was bowling.

Along with his parents, Willie was also preceded in death by his son, James Edward, sister, Minnie Preasy, Annie Lee Glover, Martha Smith and brother, George R. Glover. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Rosa Glover of Newark, NJ; one son, Willie Glover Jr. of Newark, NJ; one sister, Lizzie Mae Rollins of West Palm Beach, FL; one special brother-in-law, Bobby Preasy of Newark, NJ; two sisters-in law, Susie Dupree of Orangeburg, SC and Hattie Asbury of Vance, SC, and a host of loving nieces and nephews, other relatives and special friends.
