Mothers Never Really Die... They Just Keep House Up in the Sky

Death beckoned her with outstretched hand
And whispered softly of "An Unknown Land"
But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know,
She took Death's Hand without a fear,
For He who safely brought her here
Had told her He would lead the way
Into Eternity's Bright Day...
And so she did not go alone
Into the "Valley that's Unknown"
She gently took Death by the hand
An journeyed to the "The Promised Land"...
And there, with steps so light and gay,
She polishes the sun by day
And lights the stars that shine at night
And keeps the moonbeams silvery bright...
For Mothers really never die,
They just "Keep House Up In the Sky"
And in the Heavenly Home Above
The wait to "welcome" those they love.

A Mother's Farewell to Her Children

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

Elizabeth Isaac was born October 5th, 1933, and on Thursday, December 31st Elizabeth answered God's call and passed from this life into eternal rest.

Elizabeth Isaac was the daughter of the late Rainey Anderson Sr. and Laura J. Watkins Anderson. Elizabeth was preceded in death by her parents, husband James H. Isaac, and two brothers: Rainey Anderson Jr. and James Anderson.

Elizabeth loved making conversation and sharing the love of God with everyone she met. Elizabeth was strong-willed, confident, and independent. Elizabeth loved cooking and gardening; she often said, "When I get to heaven, I will tend to God's Garden." We're sure that's exactly what she is doing right now.

Elizabeth will be cherished forever by her children Mildred Chandler (William) of Irvington NJ, James Isaac Jr. (Regina) of Virginia Beach VA, Betty Jean Napoleon of Hawaii, Edward Delaine Isaac (Rose) Green Acres FL, Bernie Lord Isaac of Elizabeth NJ, Gwendolyn Hodge Isaac of Newark NJ, Jaqueline Isaac of Mount Pocono PA, and Vanda Kaye Isaac (predeceased); her siblings: Eva Durant of Baltimore, MD; Mary Brown (Walter V) of Richmond, VA; her sisters-in-law Willien Pringle of Jersey City, NJ; Laura Isaac of Jersey City, NJ; and Ellamae Isaac of Bordentown, NJ; 11 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, three great-grandchildren (preceded in death), and two great-great-grandchildren.

Elizabeth's unspoken love will be in our hearts forever.
