Kimberly, who was affectionately known as ‘Teacher’ and Kim was born at Martland Medical Center in Newark, New Jersey to Marsha Terrell and the late Alfred Reeves on January 20, 1974. She was the youngest of six children.

Teacher grew up on South 11th Street of Newark, where she attended Camden Middle Elementary School and West Side High School. In her early adult years, Kimberly started her journey to healthcare by getting certified to be a Home Health Aide, then pursued her education to become a CNA.

Kimberly was the revered mother of Chiquita and Khalise Terrell, and devoted grandmother of Kaiyan Smith, who were the center of her world. She loved to cook, spend birthdays, and holidays with her family and ‘bestie’ Khalise Blanding. Kim will always be remembered for her radiance, her beautiful smile, genuine and outgoing sense of humor. She spoke her mind, which was favored by many that loved her and enjoyed being in her company.

Kimberly enjoyed working as a CNA at Care One of Morristown, New Jersey. She took pride in doing her dream job of caring for the elderly and helping those in need. Her one of kind personality left a lasting impression on everyone she had a chance to meet. She was outspoken and didn’t hesitate to stand up for herself or the people she cared for.

Kimberly was tough and she battled with asthma for as long as she could. Kimberly is predeceased by Brother, Letha (Leech) Terrell and Sister, Sherry Terrell. She leaves to cherish her unforgettable memory: Mother Marsha Terrell-Williams, Siblings: Gloria Terrell, Leslie (Pinky) Terrell, and Nicole Terrell. Her children Chiquita Terrell and Khalise Terrell, grandson Kaiyan Smith, lifelong friend and co-parent Khalise (Kas) Blanding. A host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Great Nieces & Nephews, Cousins and Friends. Beloved friends from Garden Spires on 1st Street. Her coworkers & patients at Care One and friends from her road to recovery.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
