Obituary

Annie (“Anne”) Mary Bridgers Williams was a caring mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She died at Clara Maass Medical Center on December 24, 2021 at age 94 surrounded by her loved ones.

Anne was born in Edgecombe County, North Carolina to Sarah and George Bridgers on July 14, 1927. After graduating from high school, Anne moved to New York City to pursue her dream of becoming a dietician. She graduated from the New York Dietetic Institute and worked as a dietician at Park East Avenue Hospital New York.

Anne married Clyde Williams on July 20, 1957. Together, they had one daughter Claudia, born in 1960. The couple moved to East Orange, NJ in 1962. After their divorce, Anne continued to live in East Orange and was a resident of Norman Towers on N. Walnut Street for more than 20 years.

She continued her education at Essex County College, graduating with an associate’s degree in hospitality. She worked for the city of East Orange for many years in Weights and Measures and in Senior Services.

Anne is survived by her daughter Claudia (Lafayette) Hamlett, granddaughter Brittani, sisters Mamie “Becky” Dean and Margaret “Less” Dunn, as well as many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

I Thought of You Today

I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.

*I thought about you yesterday,
and days before that too.*

*I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name.*

*All I have are memories and a picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake,
with which I'll never part.*

*God has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.*

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
