Obituary

Tanya J. Latimer, affectionately known as Nadirah, of East Orange, New Jersey was called home on Sunday, January 9, 2022, at her residence.

She was born July 23, 1955, in Glen Ridge, New Jersey to the parents of Alexander Maloney, Sr and Virginia Dare Maloney who preceded her in death. Also preceding her in death was her younger brother Alexander Maloney, Jr.

Tanya attended Newark Public Schools and took classes at Bloomfield College. Although she worked several different places in the early part of her life, she found a home at EJ Brooks as a Machine Operator, where she worked until she became disabled.

She loved to read, draw, write poetry and had recently chosen to write her life story with hopes of having it published as a book one day. Although, she had several other interests, her true passion and what she was most proud of was being the Mother of her four children; and a secondary Mom to many more.

Tanya is survived by her four children, two daughter-in-laws and ten grandchildren, Ajeenah Latimer (Yasmeen Meachem), Faheem & Marita Latimer (Micayah, Mercedes, Madison & Gabriel Latimer), Gregory Mustafa Muhammad, Jr & Stephanie Brilliant (Cameron & Brielle Muhammad) and Ali & Christina Muhammad (Aaliyah, Haley & Ali Nafis Muhammad Jr.)

Aside from her children, Tanya is survived by her two sisters, Darlene Taylor and Kim McCallister and brother-in-law, Ernest McCallister. Her nieces: Michelle Lassiter, Christina Hunter-Carey, Kareemah Evans, Lisa Evans, Lynetta Perry, Leah Perry, LaTya Perry and LaMaris Perry. Her nephews: Cliff Lassiter, Dorian Carey, Bernard Corpening, K-trice Evans and Askia Hunter and a host of cousins, family, friends and loved ones.

Praise be to Allah, Lord of all the worlds.
The Compassionate, The Merciful. Ruler on the Day of Reckoning.
You alone we worship and to You alone we ask for help.
Guide us on the straight path,
The path of those whom you have brought down your wrath, not of
Those who wander astray.

Mom

You held me close when times were tough
Been by my side, when life got rough
Praised my gains embraced my flaws
Backed my side, despite the cause
You are my rock, my inspiration
Gave my life its strong foundation
Ever loving, patient, kind
And listen with an open mind
You mean the world for all you do
I love you, Mom, for being you
