Obituary

Julia Hill was born June 3, 1927 in Newark, New Jersey to Jerry Herriott and Nora James Herriott, and was a lifelong resident.

She was educated in the Newark School System, and served in various civic organizations and in various capacities. She was employed by the City of Newark Health Department until she retired. She joined the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. J.W. Mapson, Sr., and served faithfully until her health failed.

She was preceded in death by her son, Gregory King.

She leaves to cherish precious memories, her best friend and caregiver, Mary Carr; her goddaughter, Yvette Smith-Alexander; and her Mount Calvary Baptist Church Family.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
