Obituary

Terence A. "T-MAC" Marshall, son of Linda Smith and the late Clarence Marshall, was born on February 25th, 1980 in the Bronx, New York and was peacefully called home on January 6th, 2022, at the age of 41. He is survived by his mother, Linda Smith; sisters, Trina, Tiffany, and Tamara Marshall; children, Mark, Nicholas, and Tiana Marshall.

A lifelong resident of the Bronx, Terence was educated through the New York City Department of Education and attended Alfred E. Smith High School. Terence had a natural talent for technology. He began his career at Food Direct and ironically it all started by him fixing a printer. He went on to become the IT Manager at the company for over 10 years. At the time of his passing, Terence was an independent contractor for Optimum Cable and he recently followed his dream to become his own boss and created the successful Max Technologies, LLC.

Terence had a love for music, dirt bikes, and fitness. You would often find him working out in the gym or doing calisthenics in a park. He will forever be known for his beautiful and infectious smile, smooth yet hearty laugh, and a heart and personality that was unmatched. Terence's sense of humor was an interesting one to say the least. His jokes would lighten up your day no matter what your mood was. He always had positive vibes and the one you could count on. He would go that extra mile to make sure everybody was good. Terence was a good man, a loving friend, and a beloved member in his community.

Terence leaves behind, his beloved brothers, Del, Eric, Carlos, Johnny, and Joel; his former wife of 17 years, Maritza Rivera; mother's to his children, Marie Stone and Amy Matos; and host of beloved family and friends.

His memory will live on in our hearts forever.

I AM MY BROTHER'S KEEPER

I met Terence in 1992 through his cousin Del when I moved to Beck Street. As Del would say, he was the one who brought us outside lol. We shortly became best friends that turned into brothers. I was honored to be his best man at his wedding. If you knew Terence you knew he liked to joke, laugh and have a good time. If I had to describe Terence, I would say he was caring, loving, and loyal. He would do anything for his family and close friends. He was over protective with the people he loved and loved his kids. He always brought them the latest games, sneakers, whatever they asked for. He loved being a father and was so proud of his kids. He always talked about his Pumpkin and how much he loved her bragging about her all the time. Terence began working seven days a week to provide for his family. He was a hardworking man that chased his dreams and made them a reality by opening up his own business. He was never comfortable, his ambition always pushed him to want more. He had the heart of a lion, one of the bravest I've ever seen. Terence made a lot of great friends and had a lot of great relationships with so many people that loved him. He taught me and so many others how to ride a dirt bike. He was evolving into the best version of himself. I have so many stories and memories with Terence I could go on forever.

Terence we love you and will always miss you. We will never forget you. Instead of saying goodbye, I will leave it at, until we meet again, sleep in peace my brother.
