Obituary

Jean Enor Charles was born on September 18, 1936 in Croix-des-Bouquets (Haiti), to his father, Louisius Charles and his mother, Erabonne Desilus.

While in Haiti, Jean Enor went to school up to the 7th grade, and like many at that time he went to work in the field of agriculture which included working with cattle. In 1985, he moved to the United States where he worked at a car wash.

Jean Enor was married for 57 years to Marie Therese Jules. He had eight children, Marie Marthe Charles, Marie Eve Charles, Marie Evena Charles, Marie Guerlande Charles, Marie Juniore Charles, Jean Lamouth Charles, Marie Chantale Charles and Marie Carmesuze Charles; and 18 grandchildren.

Jean Enor Charles will be remembered as being a serious, respectful and disciplined man. He was very lovable, generous, honest, helpful, good, and pleasant.

At the time of his illness, he was supported by his children, who will miss him dearly.

We'll Always Remember

That special smile, that caring heart,
That warm embrace you always gave us
You've been there for mom
And us through good times and bad times.
For that we will always remember you dad,
Because there will never be another one
That can replace you in our hearts
And the love we will always have for you.
Rest in peace until we meet again.

Acknowledgement
