Obituary

Ryan “Paza” Chambers passed away on December 22, 2021, he was 40 years old. Ryan was born on October 21, 1981 in Kingston, Jamaica to parents, Raymond Chambers and Irona “Angela” Chambers. He attended Shady Grove Elementary School and Mona Primary. He sat the Common Entrance Exams and was granted a scholarship to Camperdown High School where he studied for 3 years. Ryan then immigrated to the United States with his parents and brother, Rinaldo, in 1998. In 2000, he graduated Humanity High School in Manhattan and went on to Mercy College, where he graduated with a degree in Business Administration.

Following college, Ryan moved to Virginia where he lived and worked for several years. Ryan eventually returned to NYC, where he lived with his mother until finding his own place in the Bronx, where he called home until his death.

Growing up, Ryan was the sweet, kindhearted and affectionate one. He was playful and always did or said something to make you laugh. Ryan was also not afraid of showing his emotions and telling you how he felt, good or bad. Ryan had a great sense of style and took pride in his appearance. His signature style was wearing the best jeans and sneakers, especially sneakers. His style was his passion and it showed. Ryan was the type that would give you the shirt off his back, give you a place to stay, or give you all the food he had, but he would never part with his sneakers no matter what. Ha! Ryan’s favorite moments were spent with his daughter, Kailei and son, Rahan. Above all, he had a sensitive heart, was soft spoken and did his best to be a good father.

Ryan had a good relationship with his siblings and cousins. When he was younger and living in Jamaica, Ryan enjoyed spending time with his grandmother, Dorothy Chambers, after school, as she would always pamper him. Here in the US, as he got older, Ryan remained in constant contact with his aunty Del, aunty Pearl and uncles Berris and Chris. Ryan was so loved by them, and he knew how much they loved him.

Ryan is survived by his 2 children, Kailei and Rahan; his mother, Irona Chambers; his father, Raymond Chambers; his siblings, Rinaldo, Roxanne, Rashawna, Ray-Anna, Rhajae, Reheem; his nephew, Ronnell; his Grandmother, Dorothy Chambers; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

He will be dearly missed by his loved ones.

Remember Me

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful I will never return,
I am at peace with myself and the Lord,
I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen but I can be heard,
So remember me in your heart and thoughts,
Remember me in your memories,
Remember me of the times we loved,
Remember me of the times we laughed,
Remember me of the times we cried,
Remember me of the times we fought
And always remember me of the times we lived together.
I am resting in peace with the highest hope that some day
we shall all unite again in God's Kingdom.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.*

May God Bless and Keep You!
