

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

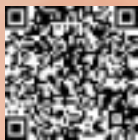

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Dolores Elise Carter was born on January 5th, 1943, She was the fourth of seven children born to Louise and Clint Carter in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Dolores grew up in Jersey City, and graduated from Ferris High School in 1964. After graduating high school, Dolores went to school in Bayview, Long Island where she received a Pediatric Technician certificate. In 1966, she began working at Christ Hospital in Jersey City, where she would continue her education and receive her Licensed Practical Nurse degree.

She furthered her education and received a Bachelors of Science in Nursing degree from Kean University.

While living in Jersey City, Dolores was a member of Grace Episcopal Church.

She moved to Elizabeth, New Jersey in 1983 and purchased her first home. In 1994, Dolores became a member of the Union Baptist Church in Elizabeth, where she served, faithfully, until her passing.

In 2009, Dolores retired from Christ Hospital after working for 43 years providing care to her patients and their families. Although Dolores never married and had no children, her nephews and nieces became her children. She loved and spoiled every one of them and they loved her dearly.

On January 6th, 2022, after celebrating her 79th birthday, Dolores went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She leaves to mourn her passing: a brother, James H. Carter, a sister-in-law, Tina Carter, and a brother-in-law, James Johnson; nephews and nieces: Scott Carter, Todd Carter, (wife-Tamara Carter), Jennifer Johnson, (husband- Herbbie Sheffield), James H. Carter II and Johonna Carter; as well as great nieces and nephews: Amani Johnson, Jazmine Johnson, Dakarai Sheffield, Sanai Sheffield; along with a host of loving family and friends.
