Obituary

Louise was born on April 22, 1944 in Boligee, Alabama to the late Legirtha Mcalpine and Thurton Mcalpine. As a child, she attended Jameswood Elementary and Junior High School. She loved to play basketball in school, play house with her sisters and plant flowers around the garden. Louise came to New York at the age of 18 years old and resided until she was called home. She was a loving, caring person and often spoke her mind. Louise loved to play jokes and laugh with her children and grandchildren. To know Louise was to love her.

On December 31, 2021, Louise joined in eternity her daughter, Sandra Norman, mother, Legirtha Mcalpine, father, Thornton Mcalpine and brothers, McKinley Mcalpine, and A.W. Mcalpine.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: husband, David Geeene of Barbados; daughter, Doris Norman; sons, James Norman and Rayshaun Greene all of Brooklyn, NY; sons, Joe Nathan Norman and Joe Louis Norman, Jr. from Boligee, AL; thirteen grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren; sisters, Arleana Mcalpine, Beatrice Mcalpine, Lillian Mcalpine, and Eliza Mcalpine all from Brooklyn, NY; sister, Geraldine Aluko and brother-in-law, Sunday Aluko of Los Angeles, CA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family and friends too numerous to mention.

She will be missed and forever in our hearts.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
