Obituary

Rolanda Price was born through the union of the late Charles Price and Ardell Price. She was born and raised in Newark, NJ. She was the oldest girl of eight siblings.

She attended West Side High School and went on to join the Army as a Medic. She received an honorable discharge after completing 9 years serving our country.

Londa enjoyed life. She was a woman who would fight you today and tomorrow go back-to-back with you to fight the world.

She was preceded in death by her siblings, John Price, Kevin Price, Rodney Price, Arnold Price and Tanya Price.

“Londa” is survived by her two living siblings, Horace Price and Darnell Price; her oldest child, Kia Price; her sons, Devon Jackson, Dashawn Price, Davion Price, Damon Price and Michael Smith, and last but not least her lifeline, as she would say, her granddaughter, Kennedy Jones, and a host of nieces, nephews and lifelong friends who became family. She is also survived by her lifelong partner Jermaine Jackson.

Her memory, love, legacy and presence will be missed but never forgotten.

She was one of a kind! There will never be another!!

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
