Obituary

Williamae (Fair) Evans, 98 of Bayonne, New Jersey departed her earthly home on January 8, 2022, as she rested peacefully in her home.

Williamae was born on October 27, 1924 in Orangeburg, South Carolina to Samuel Fair and Ada Miller. She was the youngest of four children, Ade, James and Hurley; and the couple's only girl.

After the death of her Father, Williamae's mother moved her family to Jersey City, New Jersey where she raised her family, and Williamae would spend the balance of her life.

Williamae was educated in the public school system in Jersey City and graduated from Snyder High School. While in high school, she met the man that would later become her husband, Arthur Evans. However, in true Williamae style, she was in no rush to commit, and only did so after receiving letters from Arthur professing his love while he was away serving his country.

She eventually married Arthur on December 22, 1945; and to this union four sons were born. Terry, Gregory, Marvin and Alan. While raising her boys, Williamae worked at Chase Manhattan Bank, and The Jersey City Board of Education before retiring from City Hall in Jersey City. During this time, she never gave up on her pursuit of education and she earned her bachelor degree in English from St. Peter's University in 1980.

Aside from raising her family, she was a praying woman that loved to travel, listening to music and talking to people for hours on end. One of her favorite sayings was "Don't even try it", which always got a good laugh from family and friends. She will always be known as a woman with kind words and a heart of gold.

Williamae leaves behind to cherish her memory, two sons: Terry and Alan Evans, several grandchildren and great grandchildren Marvin Keith, grandson, Evans Jr., sisters-in-law, Roslyn Evans and Gail Young and a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends near and far.

Preceding her in death are her husband Arthur and son's Gregory and Marvin and other loved ones with whom she is now reunited with in heaven.

in loving memory

Always in your Heart

Picture me as I was,
Full of life and love.
Although not with you now,
I'm watching from above.
I know how much
you miss me,
And I miss you too.
It was my time to leave,
As each of us will do.
Although not in your arms,
I'm always in your heart.
The precious love we shared,
means we're never far apart.
