Obituary

Wesley Elliott “DG-Wes” or “Big Wes” Weddington, Sr., peacefully went home to be with the Lord on December 17, 2021 at the age of 62. He was born on February 25, 1959 in Harlem, New York at Harlem Hospital.

Wes began a full life. At the young age of 17, he joined the United States Army where he remained employed for over seven years. He retired as a Sargent with honors. After leaving the Army, he discovered a passion for law. With dedication and discipline he would accomplish becoming a Paralegal and completing college with a Master’s Degree.

Wesley Weddington will forever be known by his family and closest friends as a man of intellect, joy, gifted and most of all love. He was also known to be a great Bass player.

A beloved husband to Sandra I. Weddington; Wesley is and always will be a father, “Pops”, to his name sake, Wesley, E. Weddington, Jr., DeShawn Cabeza, Sanasha S. Journet and Michael L. Journet, Jr.; his siblings; grandfather to his beautiful grandchildren he loved so dearly; his God daughter; and countless extended family members and friends.

We will miss you dearly, Mr. GQ, SKYFLY, and OG.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now; I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've now found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, and I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift-up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now and He set me free.*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement. May God Bless and keep you!
