Obituary

It is with deep sadness, to share that Lloyd Brown affectionately called Clovis passed away on December 31, 2021, leaving to mourn family and friends. He will be forever in our hearts, mind and will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

Lloyd 'Clovis' was born in Kingston Jamaica and is the 7th of 8th children born to the late Lloyd and Lora Brown. Predeceased by both parents and 3 brothers, Lloyd leaves behind partner Norma, son Andrew and daughter Jerene, 1 grandchild, 3 surviving sisters and 1 brother, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

Lloyd will be remembered for his generosity, love for close family and friends. He will be reminisced for his jovial moods and bantering ways, friendship to many and giving of himself to those within his trusted circle. He was well trusted by those who truly know him and, those he worked for to get the job done no matter what resources at his disposal and was extremely hardworking, excelling at whatever his put his hands to. He never shied away from sharing his knowledge and expertise with others. He did not have a selfish bone.

Clovis lived briefly in Grand Cayman and, Canada prior to settling permanently in United States until his untimely death. He fought bravely against his disease, although he was hospital and in the care of others, he never complained of his condition and when asked how are you doing - his responses were always – 'I'm OK'.

To those who truly knew Lloyd "Clovis", the memories that will be cherished are his great personality, selflessness, loyalty, an extremely kind person and a true friend. Lloyd "Clovis" Brown will always be in the hearts of those who truly knew him and loved him. May his soul rest in peace.

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

*As you complete this temporary journey you have embraced our hearts Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold . We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence. The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!
