Life Reflections of Mrs. Agnes Intsiful

Agnes Intsiful, Nee Tano aged 71 was a kind and caring, loving woman who considered God and her family above all things. Her faith in God was unbelievable. Agnes was Born on August 26, 1950 to Mr. Joseph and Christina Tano in Ghana. Both parents are predeceased. By his grace, Agnes was able to overcome many challenges in her life. She always gave God the Glory. She truly believed in the power of prayer.

Mrs. Agnes Intsiful was baptized and later confirmed in the Anglican Church. She attended Sefwi Wiawso Government School where she ran track and field. Her natural drive was also applied to her love of reading and learning. When the family moved to Accra, Ghana she joined the Women's Shepherd Group a church-based charity. The women were engaged in hospitality, ensuring local women's health, and organizing positive social gatherings for saddened families. She later met her husband, George, during her work, and both came together to raise a family of five children. They eventually moved to the United States where they settled in South Plainfield, NJ. Agnes was a member of Grace Episcopal Church then later the Anglican Church of the Messiah.

Agnes loved to entertain herself with sports and Korean daytime dramas. Her best times were when she was animated after a particular play whether it was a soccer match, tennis event, or even figure skating. She would mimic the athlete's play and style, regaling her family of their winning kick and nail-biting volleys. Roger Federer could do no wrong in her eyes and was her unofficial third son.

Agnes departed from this world on January 7, 2022. She leaves behind her husband George K. Intsiful and 5 children: Janet, Josephine, John, Benjamin, and Gina. Her 5 grandchildren: Nii Sackey, Benedict, Gereall, Tyrell, and Niamh. Siblings, Kofi, Francis, and Elizabeth, along with numerous nieces and nephews. Agnes will be sorely missed by her family and friends. She was good to us all. May her gentle soul rest in peace.

A Special Tribute by George Intsiful husband of Mrs. Agnes Intsiful

“We have an anchor that keeps the soul. Steadfast and sure while the billows roll. Fastened to the rock which cannot move, grounded firm and deep in the Savior’s love.” Priscilla Jane Owens (1829-1907)

My loving wife Mrs. Agnes Intsiful which I always call her Aggie was such a loving wife. I cannot completely describe in words how much I miss her now and the rest of my days on this earth. Aggie was not only a good wife but also an excellent mother, grandmother, and spiritual leader above all. I thank the Almighty God that I had the rare privilege of being the husband and partner of such a kind, loving, wife and God-fearing woman. Today, January 28, 2022, marks 21 days since you departed. The pain is still fresh and ongoing in my mind.

I met Aggie in the early sixties. She blew my mind away with her smiles and black beauty. I was impressed with her neatness and good composure. She was “cool” and carried an air of confidence. Overtime, we drew closer to each other until I had to leave the shores of Ghana. Aggie, you single handedly took charge of our children with God’s blessing, protection, and grace. Here in America, you shared your life with family and the church. Thank you, thank you Aggie, you will always be in my heart and the love I have for you will never die. May God grant you perfect peace till we are together again.

Your dear loving husband and friend George Intsiful

Special Tribute from The Children of Mrs. Agnes Intsiful

“For none of us lives to himself alone and none of us dies to himself alone. If we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.” Rom: 14: 7-8

Never did we envisage that we will be reading your tribute this early when the many breads you casted on the waters were finding their way back! No! No! No! to us you have survived worst ailment than this, so we waited out there at the hospital hoping to take you back home. This hope however eluded us.

Mama or Auntie as we affectionately called her, was not only our mother but our friend, teacher, who braced many odds to bring us to this level of independence and building up our confidence. Raising all five of us in the fear of the Lord, you led us to and gave us Christ with so much love, joy and importantly discipline. Yes, our mother was a disciplinarian and that contributed immensely to the levels we strive to attain.

Mama, God bless you richly and receive you into his comforting bosom. You have indeed been a great pillar and backbone of the family. You were always concerned about our future and wanted the best for us. We wouldn't exchange you for any other a thousand times and over. You were the best mum anyone could ask for and, in our eyes, you stood out in the crowd wherever you were. You remain the best gift God bestowed on us when He ushered us into this world.

With you we felt secured, very protected always. Your sacrifices and hard work remain a memorial in our hearts and bring us comfort in these difficult times. The many lives you touched both home and abroad attest to a life well lived. You gave us the best of you, and we are grateful. You taught us the importance of loving and respecting our neighbor as ourselves. You always reminded us of who we were and who we must strive to become. You kept telling us “It's you against the world, therefore you must be independent, work hard and know that with God, you can do all things once you set your minds to it”.

Now you journey into the everlasting, set free to be with your Maker. Yes, free from all the cares of the world! “Surely, the Lord is our shepherd so we shall not want.” Auntie! Mama! You will be sorely missed. You will always be “our medal of honor” and you will never be forgotten – we will make sure of that.

*Can a Woman's tender care
Seize towards the child she bear
Yes she may forgetful be
Yet will I remember thee (A&M 260 v3)*

Rest well till we meet again!with love your children

Special Tribute from Nii Sackey Mills
Grandson of Agnes Intsiful

I find it so difficult to write about someone I have known throughout my lifetime in a few sentences. There is no way to properly summarize a life, and certainly not yours. When I was told you had passed away, I was numb. I could not understand how a woman who has been a constant in my entire life as a friend, nurturer, and biggest supporter is no longer in this world. I mourn, the time that has escaped us, but I cherish the memories that you have bestowed upon me. I wish there was more I could say that could demonstrate your warmth, and sternness as the foundation of our family, but you have always been too humble to desire such praises.

From the time I was born into this world, you have loved me. I am grateful for this more than anything. As this is the source of comfort I hold onto now. You created a home that was my source of knowledge, faith, happiness, and protection.

You left me before I could return the love you have given me worth a lifetime. I know you are in a better place right now where there is no pain and I thank God for being with you now and always. "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever". I will make you proud and will always love you.

Farewell Grandmama

Special Tribute from the Grandchildren of Mrs. Agnes Intsiful

Our dearest loving grandma, you were full of love and care. Anytime we visited and spent time with you, you nurtured us in faith and food. You asked us of our troubles and sought to comfort them. You asked us of our lives and aimed to enrich them. You asked us of our wants and gave all that you had in return. You were a wonderful living experience and a mentor to us in strength and love. You had survived so much in one lifetime, and we had imagined you would continue to do so. But there is also strength in yielding to God's will. A lesson you have always thought us, and one we are grateful for despite its heartache. We miss you so much and are saddened by your death. Today our grandma is not here but we want the world to know that she is not forgotten. You will stay in our hearts forever and we know you are in a better place.

We love you Grandma

Your Love is Paid in Full

We come to this world as a loan,
We acquire possessions, someone to love, to not be alone,
To man he lends a woman, to woman a man,
Life is meant for us to wonder,
But never to understand,
To share a love, you both have is the greatest gift of all,
A lifetime through all the summer, winters, spring, and fall,
The loan is paid by how life's time is spent,
We laughed, cried, worried and now we wonder where it all went,
The payment is when God says well done my child,
Comfort is knowing you loved and were loved, and God's Grace is reconciled,
Life is a loan and comes with no set rule,
Its reward is God looks at you both,
your love is paid in full!!!

Family Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all; just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.
