Obituary

Mr. Patrick Virgil Clement (a.k.a. Righteous, Roy) was born on December 2nd, 1956 to Bridgette and Winston Clement in Pouderoyen, West Bank Demerara, Guyana.

He was the first of four children and the only son. He attended St. Theresa's Anglican School in Peter's Hall, East Bank Demerara. After which he worked at Auto supply car dealership in Georgetown as a mechanic, and then at Da Silva's Optical in Georgetown and he never missed the Bartica Regatta, he love the partying and power boat racing.

He came to U.S.A in the 1990s and made a life for himself, He was a hardworking, funny, and loving person, always ready to lend a helping hand. He was quite a neat and organized gentleman who loved dressing in style and very particular about caring for his clothes. No one could do his laundry but him. A son and brother, who enjoyed cooking all his favorite dishes at home especially when his sisters were visiting him in New York and when visiting his mom in Canada. Always enjoyed playing music and dancing at home or with friends and family having a good time.

He is survived by his mom Bridgette, devoted sisters Donna, Judy and Beverley, daughter: Chriscel, son-in-law: Kim Rabbie and granddaughters: Chalina and Elanese, brothers-in-laws: Jito, Laiffee and Arch, niece: Michelle nephews: Sean, Michael and Joshua and companion Cindy, countless cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

Patrick was always a happy, cheerful person with a huge heart for everyone he met and cared deeply for his mom never stopped letting her know he loved her dearly. This loving soul always tried to help anyone that's in need.

He will be sadly missed by all who were privileged to know him.

If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. Our Hearts are broken, but you will always remain forever in our hearts, no one can ever fill.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
