Obituary

Sharon Fay Johnson, known to all that loved her as “Fay-Fay”, was born, March 8, 1945 in Morristown, NJ. She was the daughter of the late Annie L. and Tillman Cole.

Sharon grew up in Morristown, NJ. Graduated from, Morristown High School, and went on to earn several degrees in Theology. In addition to becoming an ordained minister, Sharon spent a majority of her life as an entrepreneur and working as an executive administrative assistant at the ARC of Morris County.

Sharon “Fay-Fay” Johnson was a well-known and beloved member of the community. She was an outgoing, hard, feisty woman who would tell it like it is and love on you at the same time. Sharon was always there for her family and friends. She was loved and will be missed by all.

Sharon was preceded in death by her brother, David “Fuzzy” Cole and Sister, Bevelyn Cole.

Sharon is survived by their three children, Bridgette (Jeffery) Cotten; Kevin (Paris) Johnson; James A. (Keisha) Johnson, that was born to the union of James E. Johnson; eleven grandchildren, Courtney, Kevin, Brandon, Brittney, Chelsea, Dejon, Niyae, Jordan, Marshelle, Bryce and Paige; nine great-grandchildren, Iyanna, Cameron, Aziya, Cassidy, Kirk III, Chace, Kaius, Yaela, and Amya; Four sisters, Zandra Morgan, Dr. Gwendolyn Cole-Hoover, Andrea and Francine Cole; and a host of family and friends.

*Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
So you have pain now; but I will see you again,
and your hearts will rejoice,
and no one will take your joy from you.*

John 16:22
