

I'd like the memory
of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that
I leave when life done.

Obituary

Mrs. Inora Anderson-Guyton, the beautiful daughter of the late Moses Anderson, Sr., and Gladys Hearst-Anderson was born in Dublin, Laurens County, Georgia, on December 11, 1929. On January 26, 2022, she was set free from the pain and suffering she endured for a time, peacefully at her home.

At the young age of 17, after a brief courtship, Inora was joined in Holy Matrimony to Joseph Guyton, Jr. From this union, they had eight children. Inora attended the Laurens County School System. She was a member of the Springhill Missionary Baptist Church in Dublin, Georgia, where she served faithfully as a choir member. In the late 60's, the family relocated to Newark, NJ. Inora later joined the South English Kingdom Hall of Jehovah Witness Congregation.

Inora was a devoted homemaker. She was a seamstress, gardener, and a great cook. She loved food shopping, especially with her coupons. And always cooked enough food to feed her children, grandchildren, and anybody else that stopped by. When she was physically and mentally able, you would always find her in her kitchen. She was also a fulltime babysitter for her grandchildren, and the neighborhood kids. And she treated all the children like her own with a big caring heart.

Inora had a quiet demeanor, but she was stern at times and had a slight sense of humor. She only laughed out loud on occasion, and it had to be something that was extremely funny. She also loved wearing her many colorful scarves, which she wore with style and grace.

Inora was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph Guyton, Jr. a daughter, Josephine Ruth Guyton; a grandson, Tony Guyton, Jr.; sisters, Annie Bell Anderson-Smith, and Tina Anderson; brothers, Moses Anderson, jr., Homer Lee Anderson, and Belmar Anderson.

Inora leaves to cherish in her memory; daughters, Bonnie J. Guyton of Allentown, PA, Donna J. (Jessie J) Olds of Dothan, AL, Barbara A. Guyton, and Sandra G. Guyton of Irvington, NJ; sons, Tony L (Charlie Mae) Guyton, of Durham, NC, Thomas Guyton of Newark, NJ, and Joseph Guyton, III, Irvington, NJ; two sisters, Earnestine Anderson of Riverdale, GA, and Mildred Anderson of Dublin, GA; three brothers, Carlton Anderson, Edward Anderson, and Nathaniel Anderson all of Dublin, GA; sister-in-law, Rose Anderson, of Bronx, NY; brother -in-law, Cordie (Della) Guyton. She was also blessed to have twelve grandchildren, twenty-five great-grands and six great great-grands, and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.
