

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

ORDER OF SERVICE

“And God shall wipe away tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, nor crying; neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.”

Revelations 12:4

Thelma Brown Munnerlyn was born May 10, 1937 in Marlboro County, SC to the late Robert Brown and Willie Ann Brown. She was affectionately called Mrs. T by many.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Bennettsville, SC. She was very active in church in South Carolina. Sister Munnerlyn later joined the Majority Baptist Church once relocating to Brooklyn, New York where she also became a very active and devoted member for 44 years. She was active in many ministries during her time at Majority Baptist Church. She was also the president of the Ministry Circle at the time of her death.

She received her education and graduated from Marlboro High School. Shortly after graduating, she relocated to Brooklyn, NY where she met and married Franklyn Munnerlyn, who is also from Bennettsville, SC. From their union, they have 2 children, Seth Brown and Emma Munnerlyn.

Thelma Munnerlyn attended Clara Barton School, studying to be a nurse's aid, and once the Emergency Medical Services Test became available to her, she became the First African American Woman to become an Ambulance Driver in New York City.

Thelma worked as an NYC EMS and retired after 25 years of service. She was in several organizations, Friends of Roy Wilkins, Rochdale Senior Citizens Group, and an active member of ‘Order of Eastern Star Dove of Peace, Chapter #604.’

Thelma was preceded in death by her parents Robert and Willie Ann Brown, loving husband Franklyn Munnerlyn and 9 siblings. Thelma leaves to cherish her memories her son, Seth Allen Brown (Ute) of Killeen, Texas, and her daughter, Emma Tonya Munnerlyn of Queens, NY; two sisters, Anne Ruth David of Bennettsville, SC and Theola Melton of Augusta, GA.; two sisters-in-law, Betty Munnerlyn of Bennettsville, SC and Loretta Brown of Washington DC; six grandchildren, Quashel, Tyref, Christopher, Seth Jr, Yasmine, and Dea; two great grandchildren, Aaliyah and Ande; a goddaughter, Keisha Bert Wilson, and a special friend, Charlie Williams. She also had a host of nieces and nephews and beautiful and loving friends.

Thelma was kind hearted and a loving Christian sister, always willing to help when needed.
