Obituary

Jennifer Bradley was born on January 15, 1959 in New York, New York to the late Elizabeth Bradley and Samuel Adams. Jennifer “Jenny” took her wings on February 2, 2022.

Jenny graduated from Wadleigh High School in Harlem, New York. She had a passion for health care and pursued a career as a Healthcare Provider.

Jenny became a proud mother of her first daughter Tina on February 6, 1975. Jenny adored her family especially the special bond she shared with her sisters Darlen and Rotina who preceded her in death. After their passing, Jenny humbly took on a mother figure role to her nieces and nephews. Jenny was the aunt that made everyone laugh, always ready for a celebration. Jenny lived her life unapologetically “her way”, with her infectious smile that brightened up the room.

Jenny leaves to mourn: her two daughters, Tina and Brittany; grandsons, Gregory, Richie and Justin; granddaughters, Jessica Rose and Kaylin; great granddaughter, Gianna; Brother Barry Bradley; bonus children (nieces), Tatisha, Zatisa, Darneisha and Ebony; (nephews), Latete, Pedro, Sean, and Douglas; aunts, Robbie Bradley and Mary Adams; uncle, Haywood Champion; her life partner, Richard Johnson; special friends, Keith Reddick and Theodore Mabry; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins; and loving family and friends.

My Momma Jenny,

I know that as soon as you reached Heaven you let everyone know it was your birthday. You chose to celebrate everyday of your life like it was your birthday. It was your signature of a joyful life and making everyday your best day. You wore a smile that was contagious, along with your bodacious personality. Thank you for doing your best. Thank you for loving me. Thank you for appreciating me and loving you back. But we know your favorites were your three amigos, NaNa, Zatisha, and Pedro. My momma Jenny, we shared our good and bad times, crazy, normal, likes, dislikes. You had my back, and I had yours. You got on my nerves, and I got on yours. But there was nothing we wouldn't do for each other. My momma Jenny, you weren't perfect but you were purity. Your unselfish love, humility and putting others first allowed you to make decisions that may not have been best for you. But you made sure it was the best for those you loved and cared for unconditionally.

Family is not one thing, family is everything.

Until I see you again Jenny from the Block.

Love always your daughter, Tina

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the family, we would like to begin by thanking everyone that is here today, and those who have sent their condolences. We have received countless calls, visits, texts, thoughts, and prayers. They have been both comforting during this difficult time and have been a reminder of the impact Jenny had on us all.
