Obituary

Cathy Moore Crenshaw was born on September 1, 1950. She was the third child born to William and Addie Moore. Cathy was in the second graduating class at Springfield Garden High School. After graduation, she attended college at night and worked as a banker teller. Cathy left the bank and began her nearly forty-year career with the U.S. Postal Service retiring in 2016. While working at the Post Office, she met and married Leonard Crenshaw. In May of 1978, Cathy gave birth to her daughter Latasha McCrimmon, her pride and Joy.

Cathy was an avid Bid Whist player. Playing both for fun and bragging rights and also competitively for cash prizes. Cathy expressed her creative side with her sewing, knitting, crocheting and needle point. She made clothes for friends and family. Cathy specialized in making and selling baby clothes and blankets. She was a great cook, known for her macaroni and cheese, seafood salad, bread pudding and peach cobbler. Cathy loved to travel and was always ready for the next cruise.

In 2015, Cathy suffered a stroke and relocated to Henderson, NV, where she lived with her sister, Cynthia Moore. Under the care of a battery of doctors in Nevada, she continued to enjoy life. She embraced her competitive side by going to the casino on a regular basis and cheering on her favorite basketball teams. Cathy became an avid online game player. She never left home without her tablet.

Cathy's wanderlust continued as she traveled to the east coast to spend time with family and friends in New York and quality time with her daughter in Maryland. She was blessed to spend the past holiday season with Latasha. She enjoyed a Caribbean cruise in 2018 and was disappointed when she was forced to cancel cruises in 2020 and 2021 because of COVID-19.

In January of this year, Cathy was hospitalized at Desert Springs Hospital in Las Vegas, NV. It was there that she departed this life. Cathy was proceeded in death by her parents, William and Addie Moore, her husband Leonard, her sister Carolyn Stovell and her brother William Moore, Jr. Left to treasure her precious memory are: her beloved daughter, Latasha McCrimmon, sister Cynthia Moore, brother-In-Law Lewis Stovell, nephew, Michael Stovell (Tashana Stovell) and a host of loving cousins and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

 Heknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
