Obituary

Caroline Campbell was born on January 17, 1945 in Fort Motte, South Carolina to the late Verdena Weathers and the late Preston Kinley. Caroline attended Lyne Zion School in Fort Motte, South Carolina with her cousin, Ethel Mae Owens. They were thick as thieves.

In 1957, Caroline moved to New York City with her mother. She attended John Adams High School in Queens, New York. In New York it was here that she met and married the love of her life, Fred R. Campbell, Sr. in 1962. Caroline worked at Carpel Curtain for years. Although she did not have to work, she wanted to work. She was an independent soul.

Caroline was affectionately known as “Ms. Carol” and “the Grand Diva”. She loved her family and would do anything for them. Her motto was Family Over Everything. Carol loved to party. She was never one to stay in the house. Every day was a party to her. She made sure that her children had everything that they needed even if she had to go without. Whenever a family member was in need, she would be there for them, no questions asked.

Carol had many jobs in her lifetime. She worked as a HHA and a cashier. Her final job was at Radio City Music Hall where she was the Building Service Manager. It was here that she met Michele Davis. She was like a second mother to Michele. They became the best of friends. Although she had many jobs, her love and her passion was cooking. Anyone whoever ate her food would talk about it for days. Everyone loved her macaroni and cheese and all of her rices.

Carol had many adopted sons, daughters, and grandkids. It did not matter if you were blood related, she always treated you like family.

Carol leaves to mourn her passing: one brother, Willie Weathers; one sister, Linda Kindley; six children, Fred Campbell, Jr., Tracee Jamison, Randy Killings, Keith Campbell, Sr., Cheryl Yarrell (Shawn) and TySaun Campbell (Danixa); nine grandkids, Russell, Shontaya, Nicole, James, Keith Jr., Dajaniara, Jason, Shawn Jr. and Adryana; three great grands, Jahmir, Jaylin and Donte; three nephews, Anthony, Richard and Kareem (Sun Hwang); two nieces, Celanthia and Juliette; a host of cousins, her dear friends, Helen Rivera and Helen Whitaker; and friends who will miss her dearly.

ONE MOTHER

You can only have one Mother
Patient kind and true
No other friend in all the world,
Will be the same to you.

When other friends forsake you,
To Mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.

As we look upon her picture,
Sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine,
And a smile for one and all.

Sweet Jesus, take this message to
Our dear Mother up above,
Tell her how we miss her,
And give her all our love.
