

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Letters To Heaven

I am writing this letter to you up above,
To tell you how much I miss you,
I still don't know the reason why you had to leave,
It just wasn't fair.

I am now left with this sorrow,
Along with so many others who love you just as much as I do,
Oh how I wish to see you,
To touch your face,
To laugh with you and your jokes
One Last Time.

Everyday I hear you whisper in my thoughts,
I feel you around me,
I feel your presence every minute of the day,
But I know you live on,
from those lives you have touched.

I know someday I'll see you again,
But for now, I'll keep you close to my heart,
Keep you safe

Until then..
Always remember that,
You were and still always be loved.

Denise Jackson Williams daughter of the late Phyllis and Charles Jackson was born November 5, 1957 in Elizabeth, N.J.

Niecy as she was lovingly known, departed this life February 5, 2022, surrounded by her husband and close family.

She attended the Elizabeth Public School System graduating from Battin High School class of 1975.

A hard worker, Denise was employed for several years by the City of Elizabeth, the Keywell Corporation in Port Newark and for the last 16 years at County Graphics in Linden N.J.

In 1995, Denise married the love of her life Terry E. Williams, they were inseparable ever since. They would not do anything without one another.

Denise enjoyed staying home with her husband, spending time with her family playing Pokeno and going to Atlantic City.

She was a loving and caring person with a smile that could light up a room. To know her was to love her, but you would also know exactly what was on her mind.

Denise was predeceased by her parents, maternal and paternal grandparents, and her uncle Dennis Franklin.

Denise loving memories will be cherished by her husband Terry E. Williams twin brother Duane Jackson, sister Rhonda "Yaka" Jackson, baby brother Sean Overton, one uncle Lloyd Franklin, one aunt Gwendolyn Franklin her God son Aquil Sanders along with a host of nieces, nephews cousins and dear friends.
