Obituary

Mildred Davis was born on June 14, 1932 in New York City. She was the youngest of four children of the late Ernest Crichlow and Veltina Agatha Haywood. Mildred departed this life on January 29, 2022 surrounded in love.

Mildred spent her early years in New York City. She was educated at Watley High School in Harlem, New York. Mildred began her career at AT&T in March of 1969 and retired from Verizon telephone company on June 17, 1994.

She is survived by: her daughter, Yvonne Davis; son, George Davis; brother, Alexander Crichlow; devoted granddaughters, Donna Davis-Compaore and Latonia Weems; her great grandson, Stephon Odom; niece, Alison Hamilton; and a host of other relatives.

Mildred will be remembered as a quiet and loving woman who opened her home and heart to those in need. We love you and you will forever be in our hearts.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

She is Gone

by David Harkins

"You can shed tears that she is gone

Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back

Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her

Or you can be full of the love that you shared"

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all the acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
