Obituary

Deborah Ann Robinson was born on November 21, 1954 in Bronx Hospital, Bronx, N.Y. to Urban and Edna Figueira. Urban was a Corporal in the United States Marines for two years. After serving his country Urban worked at General Motors Corporation for 37 years. Edna worked as a sales clerk for a number of years, but her pride was being a homemaker for her family.

Deborah was baptized at St. Augustine's Church, the same church her parents were married at. At three and a half years of age Deb became a big sister to Victoria and then at the age of nine she welcomed her youngest sister Valerie. The family enjoyed many Saturdays at Jones Beach and the drive in movies during the summer months and spent many weekends in the winter sleigh riding.

As a young girl Deb attended Michelangelo Intermediate School in the Bronx. During the summer of 1963 she was selected by her school to participate in the NBC Jewish Fourth Hour and her mother brought her into Manhattan for the taping of the show every Saturday morning. When she wasn't focused on her studies she was often taking care of her younger sisters and was always finding ways to leave surprises and gifts for her parents, which are personality traits that she carried throughout her life.

Deb went to Evander Childs High School, where she met the love of her life and future husband - Samuel "Brady". Music played a big role in their lives, they enjoyed a good party and were often found surrounded by friends, family and great music.

In February 1973 Deb and Sam wed and three years later gave birth to a beautiful son Samuel III. Their family was completed five years later with the birth of another beautiful son Jason.

Deborah was successful in her professional life. She held the title of Vice President at NCRI. She was a manager for many companies including Filene's basement, Talent Tree Staffing and Initial Staffing Services just to name a few. She devoted her life to serving people from her family and friends, to her career finding job placement for clients and her volunteer work within the community. Deb was a Den Leader for the Boy Scouts of America. She assisted her father and mother in running Pack 164 where she dedicated 15 years of her time and talents to guide and educate children in the community. She also gave her time to Holy Rosary Church decorating for holiday services, church functions and helping with collections for the annual food drive.

Deb was an extremely creative and talented person. She realized her hobbies could be business ventures and started Cakes Fantastic! and Parties Fantastic!. This allowed her to share her passion with more than just her family and friends.

Deb was overjoyed by the marriage of her eldest son - Samuel to Jessica Weaver in 2002. She played a pivotal role as event coordinator at their wedding. She had the honor of becoming Grandmother to their two children Brandon and Bryan. Then, overjoyed again in 2013 by the marriage of her youngest son - Jason to Vivian Beilhartz (she's still waiting for more Grandchildren).

Those who had the pleasure of knowing Deb whether it was for a minute, a year or a decade will forever be impacted by her soul.

Deborah is reunited with her husband, Samuel Brady Robinson Jr. Beloved mother of Samuel Brady Robinson III, wife Jessica and Jason Ian Robinson, wife Vivian. Loving Grandma of Brandon and Bryan Robinson. Cherished daughter of Urban and the late Edna Figueira. Sister of Victoria Daley (late Carl) and Valerie Fowlkes (Santana). Sister-in-law of Richard Robinson (Arlene). Dear aunt to her nieces and nephews. Special cousin to many.

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure*

For my eternity is sure.

Remember all the good times

The memories we've shared

The precious jewels of laughter

The tender love and care.

I found my resting place

God's peace surrounds my soul

Let love abound in all your hearts

Let heaven be your goal.
