Obituary

Madeline Wearing (nee Snell) was born on August 23, 1923 to the late Henry and Mae Ella Snell. After a full and joyful life, on May 8, 1923 God sent his angels to come and set her free. Madeline was educated in the South Carolina system after which time she moved to Jersey City in 1954. She went on to work for Central Laundry for many years and after their closing she went to work for Visiting Homemakers until her retirement in 1982.

Madeline met and married Sam Wearing, Jr. and of this union 7 children were born: Sammy, Mildred, Charlotte, Ella, Nathan, Anthony and Curtis.

Madeline had a passion for cooking and everyone loved her potato salad fried chicken and those sweet potato pies.

Madeline was a faithful member of St. Johns Baptist Church.

Madeline was preceded in death by her parents Henry and Mae Ella Snell, her husband Sam Wearing, Jr. three sons Sammy, Curtis and Anthony. Her 10 brothers and 2 sisters and her son-in-law Paul Gethers.

Madeline is survived by her children Mildred Gethers, Jersey City, Charlotte Wearing, Jersey City, Ella Burrows, Jersey City and Nathan (Mike) Wearing, Jersey City, 11 grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren, 4 great great grandchildren, her sister Daisy Smalls, Holly Hill, SC, special friends Billy and Tee. A host of nieces and nephews and other family and friends.

I've Made It

*You would have to live your life to the fullest potential to meet me again
Just because I have departed don't give up my family & friends Please Don't be sad because paradise makes me smile, Hopefully that'll ease the pain of you not seeing me for a while God called on me for a reason and who am I to debate So just live life until we meet again & I'll be the one to welcome you through the heaven gates Memories grow & memories fade, But memories of me will never ever go away Death leaves pain that will never heal But the moments we shared they can never steal Always fear god, now I can see why he's the greatest I'm in heaven with all the angels don't feel down, I've finally made it*

Lovingly submitted by the grandchildren

They say there is a reason, They say that time will heal, But neither time or reason, Will change the way we feel.

For no one knows the heartache, That lies behind our smiles, No one knows how many times, We have broken down and cried.

We want to tell you something, So there won't be any doubt, You're so wonderful to think of, But so hard to be without.

*We cannot bring the old days back, When we were all together,
The family chain is broken now, But memories live forever.*

Lovingly submitted by the children

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
