Obituary

Jane Maria Morales, daughter of the late Frances Bond and Richard Hilliard, was born on June 21, 1964 in Corona, Queens, NY and raised in East Harlem, NY. She was called home to be with the Lord on May 9, 2022.

Jane celebrated every facet of life and one of those ways was by touching the lives of others. Brave, Fearless, Energetic, Adventurous, Adaptable, Amicable, Charismatic, and Courageous still do not sum up Jane. She was a woman of many talents, but I believe she felt her biggest accomplishment was being a mother. Anyone who knew Jane personally or in passing, heard about her three children. One of her many famous lines were, "I'm proud of all my kids."

Jane raised three children proudly and instilled priceless values in them, as mothers do. Jane was also very known through her food. Jane could make just about any dish and it was "Finger Licking Good." Her exceptional skills in the kitchen made her known by many, even those whom she has never met. Jane took pride in anything she did, and she did it with a big and beautiful infectious smile.

While Jane was an educated woman, she gained most of her wisdom through life experiences. She shared that wisdom with many and it was always well received. One more thing, amongst several others, that we cannot forget was how stylish Jane was. Jane took pride in her appearance from head to toe. Jane was authentic and raw at times. She told people how she felt and was respectfully unapologetic. Good or bad, people respected her for that. There will never be enough words to describe her, Jane was simply Jane, an Amazing Iconic Woman.

Jane was preceded in death by her siblings, Chineta, Don, and Sophie. She leaves to celebrate her life: three children, grandson, husband, two siblings, cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, friends and more. This was a great loss for the world, but she will live on loud and proud through our memories and hearts.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
