Obituary

Hazel Lee Jackson, the daughter of the late Lou Ella Williams and Melvin Reaves, was born on July 11, 1940 in Dillon, South Carolina. She departed this life on Saturday, June 11, 2022, at St. Joseph's Wayne Medical Center.

Hazel was a shy sweet child. Her mother, the late Lou Ella Williams once said, "Hazel never sassied me." Hazel grew up working alongside her family in the fields of Dillon South Carolina picking tobacco and cotton. It was during these early years she met the love of her life, Hyman Lee Jackson whom she married. Their first child, Marvin, was born soon after.

Hazel and Hyman moved to Paterson, New Jersey seeking a better way of life. She and Hyman held many different jobs, however, Hazel eventually became a full time mother with the addition of five more children, Jerry, Laura, Terry, Rachel, and Barry.

Hazel became a devoted born again Christian at an early age. The church was a very important part of her life. She constantly taught her children to serve the Lord. Hazel's reputation of being a true woman of GOD preceded her. There were many over the years that sought her wise counsel and prayer. She spent many years under the ministries of Elder Nelson Woodley, Mother Philson, Reverend Frank Garris, Pastor Norma Faye Hill, and her current pastors, Apostle Peter Williams and his wife Executive Pastor Dr. Regina Williams of Tabernacle of Praise. She was very active in the churches that she fellowshiped with. She served as a pastor's nurse for many years and in her latter years she became a Mother of the church.

Hazel was always willing to help those in need without hesitation. She fed the hungry, clothed the poor, and provided shelter to those that came to her. On February 3, 2022, Hazel's Place Family Services For Women And Children inc, a nonprofit organization, was named in her honor. She was also granted a lifetime board membership status by the organization's CEO, her daughter, Laura Jackson.

Hazel gave of herself more than any human being could possibly be asked to give. She was a loving and faithful wife to her husband Hyman. A wonderful mother to her children. A shoulder to cry on for all family and friends, and a true worshiper of GOD until her last breath. May her memory and legacy of love be celebrated forever.

Hazel leaves a legacy of love that includes her late husband Hyman Jackson and their son Jerry Jackson, their surviving children Marvin Jackson and his wife Doris, Pastor Laura Jackson, Terry Jackson and his wife Lisa, Rachel Jackson Felder and her husband LaRue, and Barry Jackson. Hazel's grandchildren: Nigeria, Marvin jr, Marcell, Terry jr., Terrell (Terry's son), Karlie, the late DaJahnay, Robby (Bus), Minister Jasmine, Terrell (Laura's son), Syreeta, Shamir (Davu), Nicole (NeNe), LaTyra, Shaniya, Nymier, and Butch. Hazel's great grandchildren: Jonah, Noel, Micah, Malaiyah Maiyah, Tyrie, Angel, and Amiyah. Hazel's siblings: one surviving brother James Williams, the late George McLeod, Ora Lue (John) Smith, Egertha Dennett, Douglas Williams, and Frances Carmichael Hazel's in laws: Agnes and her husband John, Leithel (husband of Egertha Dennett), Gertrude, Floree, Freddie and his wife Crystal, Joe, Pete, Nathan, Andrew, Charlie and his wife Margaret, Wallace (predeceased) and his wife Lila (predeceased), Robert (predeceased) and his wife Carolyn (predeceased), Lillie Ruth (predeceased) and her husband Redis (predeceased), and Emma Jane (predeceased).

My Final Testimony by Hazel Jackson

Now that my life here on earth is over, I hear my savior calling me.

I kept the faith, I ran the race that was set before me.

His hands are stretched out to me, he has come with my crown.

Don't cry for me, be happy that I am set free. No more sickness, no more pain, no more tears. Just be happy for me.

I am in a better place. I'll be watching over you.

Mommy

*Mommy we love you and we will miss you so much
Our lives will be different missing your special touch
We thank you for being a wonderful mother
You were beautiful yes indeed
You were always there for us during our times in need
You nurtured our hearts and left an impression that will never go away
We know that God called you home
even though we wanted you to stay
As the tears began to fall and run down our face
We find comfort in knowing that our mother is in a better place
So, mommy we love you
And we wish you were here
But our time spent apart is temporary
Because we will see you again in Heaven when we get there*
