Obituary

Joanne Elizabeth Edwards was born in Trinidad and Tobago on August 15, 1964, to Audrey Edwards and Leonard Jacob. Joanne lived in Trinidad where she received her early education before migrating to the US in the early 1970s.

Joanne was accepted into Hampton University where she not only excelled in her academics but was also part of the Student Union Board in 1986 and '87. Later that year she graduated with her bachelors in business. After graduating she began her journey to becoming an Operations Supervisor at United Airlines, which was once Continental. A company she worked for over 30yrs. She was respected and very loved by her colleagues.

Joanne was a very private person and although she appreciated the time she had to herself; She absolutely adored and loved her family & friends and the time spent with them. All of her cousins, her parents, her sister, her aunts, her uncles, 2nd cousins, cousin twice removed. Every single person felt the love she embodied throughout her life. Joanne was drama free and known as the peace keeper by those who knew her. She would always remain neutral, never taking one side or the other but always making you feel as though you were understood and listened to. Joanne loved music, loved to dance, loved swimming in the oceans of Trinidad and Tobago but most of all loved traveling. More importantly she loved her three kids and devoted her life to making sure they grew up as upstanding adults who can stand together but also as individuals.

Joanne was called to rest on June 6, 2022. She was predeceased by her mother Audrey Edwards; Aunts Elizabeth Reid & Venus Harry; Uncle Nathaniel Scotland, Lestel, Peter, John and Alwyn Edwards. Joanne has left to celebrate her life her father & stepmom Leonard & Joan Jacob; her sister Abi Jacob; daughter Kelsey Edwards; sons Lance Charles and Andre Edwards; nephews Taurean & Camen Barrel, uncle Winston Edwards, the Reids, the Harrys, the Edwards.
