Obituary

Leslie Anthony Morgan was born on October 19, 1993, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Islip, New York, to Leslie and Sharon Morgan. He made his transition from this life on May 27, 2022.

Anthony accomplished so many things throughout his life. At the age of six, his father coached him in PAL football until he aged out. He went to Copiague High School, and throughout his years there they prepared him for college. After he graduated from high school, he was accepted to Post University in Waterbury, Connecticut, where he went there for six years for his Bachelor's degree in Sports Management and Master's in Business and Administration making the dean's list. During that time, he became a father to a beautiful daughter named Layla Alexandria Morgan. Once he graduated, he remained in Connecticut. While residing there he worked at Amazon and ESPN. ESPN was his dream job. His title at ESPN was STATS and INFORMATION.

Anthony was such a happy and outgoing person. Everyone that he encountered loved his personality and energy. He was so full of life, and he brought joy and laughter into so many people's lives. He was very dependable, and he also adored his daughter. He loved spending quality time with her. And his smile was infectious—he made you smile.

He leaves behind: his loving parents, Leslie and Sharon Morgan; his loving daughter, Layla Alexandria Morgan; aunts and great aunts; uncles and great uncles; and a host of cousins and friends.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God made for me.

I took His hand when I heard His call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play.

Task left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My Life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.
