The family wishes to express gratitude to all of you who have been there for Jackie through her life - whether at the start or at the end of her earthly journey. You may have sent a card, called, visited, shopped with her, enjoyed the delights of a restaurant or just sat quietly with her. Thank you for the part you had on her journey and thank you for being here as we celebrate her transition to her heavenly home.
May God’s blessings be on you!

What Will Matter?

By Micheal Josephson

Ready or not, someday it will all come to an end. There will be no more sunrises, no minutes, hours or days. All things you collected, whether treasured or forgotten, will pass to someone else. Your wealth, fame and temporal power will shrivel to irrelevance. Your grudges, resentments, frustrations and jealousies will finally disappear. So too your hopes, ambitions, plans and to-do list will expire. The wins and losses that once seemed so important will fade away. It won’t matter where you came from, or on what side of the tracks you lived, at the end. It won’t matter whether you were beautiful or brilliant. Even your gender and skin color will be irrelevant.

So what will matter?

How will the value of your days be measured?

What will matter is not what you bought, but what you built. Not what you got, but how you gave. What will matter is not your success, but your significance. What will matter is not what you learned, but what you taught. What will matter is every act of integrity, compassion, courage or sacrifice that enriched, empowered or encouraged others to emulate your example. What will matter is not your competence, but your character. What will matter is not how many people you knew, but how many will feel a lasting loss when you're gone. What will matter are the memories, but the memories that live in those who loved you. What will matter is how long you will be remembered, by whom and for what. Living a life that matters doesn’t happen by accident. It’s not a matter of circumstance but of choice.

Choose to live a life that matters.

Obituary

Evangeline Jacqueline Irons, lovingly known as “Jackie” was born to Reverends Hubert Irons and Lena East- Irons on November 13, 1940 in the Bronx, New York. She was the fourth of six children. She started her walk with God in the family church at the Evangelical Church of God. She was educated at local schools and lived in the Bronx most of her adult life.

Jackie worked at various administrative positions. To further her career at Bronx Lebanon Hospital, she obtained an Associate Degree in Secretarial Science from Bronx Community College. Jackie worked at Bronx Lebanon Hospital in the Cardiology Department for over 30 years until her retirement in 2009.

Jackie loved the Lord and served Him the best way she knew how. She was an active member of Soundview Presbyterian Church where she served as a Deaconess, and a member of Presbyterian Women’s Club. Jackie enjoyed life-shopping, traveling, singing, attending church, and her senior center at Lafayette-Morrison NORC Program. Jackie was known for her fashion statements-She was fly! Most of all she derived much pleasure and joy from time she spent with family and close friends.

Jackie’s transition was preceded by her parents, siblings Josephine Irons, Nefartari Irons-Cooper, and Alan Irons, her nephew Wayne Cooper and niece Jamila Irons-Johnson. She further leaves to mourn her passing, her children , Gina Haynes-Proctor (Keith) and Karen Irons-Thomas, her grandchildren Kenneth Haynes (Courtney), Keiana Proctor, great grandchildren Jaiden, Jordan, Zoe, and Avery Haynes, her brothers Hubert Irons (Marion), Jonathan Irons (Fontella), her sister in- love, Janice Campbell, her nephew Anthony Cooper, nieces Julienne Irons, Jeannine Irons and Jasmine Irons-Anokute (Chris) and a host of grand nieces, nephews and close friends.

We loved Jackie but God loved her more.
